Then, he thought, it was another dog with a bigger bone,
so he jumped and dropped his bone.
The dog just bit into the water but didn't get that bigger bone

Finally, he lost his bone and went back home very sad.

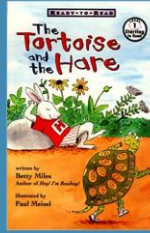

First, once upon a time, a dog was running home with a bone.
He was running as fast as he could.
He crossed the river and saw himself in the water.

Activity 2 Write the numbers 1-8 on the lines to order the fable.

The tortoise and the Hare.

When the tortoise was passing near, the hare always said: "look at the tortoise, she is too slow".

Once upon a time there was a very arrogant hare, she used to say "I'm the fastest animal".

"Me" said the hare and laughed. Let's see who wins. O.K. I accept

1

One day the tortoise was angry and made a bet with the hare "I am sure I can win on a race".

So, all the animals were there, and the race started.

Meanwhile, the tortoise went slow, but without stopping.
