Activity 1. Cut out the phrases and paste them in the correct place to complete the legend.

“The legend of Popocatepetl and Iztaccíhuatl” 	Once upon a time, there was a beautiful princess named Itza. She was an emperor's daughter.  	Warriors travelled from different lands to meet her. They used to bring presents to her. She was not interested in any of them.
One day, a warrior named Popoca came to see her. And said "Princess I don't have expensive gifts to offer". But if you marry me, I promise that I will love you as long as Tonatiuh rises and I will stay by your side forever. 	As the time passed, Itza fell in love with him. The Emperor wanted Itza to marry a wealthy and powerful person. But he also knew that Popoca was the best and bravest warrior in his kingdom.   	The Emperor had been in a war for years with a neighbor town. The leader was called Jaguar. So, the emperor talked to Popoca and told him if you defeat Jaguar, I will let you marry my daughter Itza.
Popoca gathered his men and marched _____. They fought many times, losing some battles. 	But when the end seemed near, they began winning them. It was clear that _____ and his men. 	Realizing this, Jaguar had a plan, he sent a Popoca's messenger to tell Itza that Popoca was dead and told him _____ to make her sleep.
As soon as _____, she cried, "No that cannot be possible". I know how you feel princess, said the messenger. 	But _____, It will help you to feel better. Itza drank the potion and soon, she fell into a deep sleep. 	The End
